Dear Hiring Manager:

I am writing to apply for the position of Java Developer within your organization. With my strong background in backend api and a passion for creating efficient and robust back-end solutions, I believe I would be an excellent fit for your team.

My name is Nhoem Ponleu, and I have studying bachelor degree at acelida institute of business. Throughout my studies, I have gained extensive experience in back-end development, working on various projects that have allowed me to refine my skills in programming languages such as Java spring boot with 9 months experiences and completed a lot of sample projects

Thank you for considering my application. I have attached my resume, which provides more detailed information about my experience and qualifications. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and expertise align with your requirements in more detail

Sincerely,
Nhoem Ponleu
